ORDER:

With a view to implement the Geographical Information System for demarcation of all Parliamentary and Assembly Constituencies including the Polling Station-wise details, orders were issued in the G.O. 1st read above appointing Sri G.Vara Prasad, Project Manager, GIS and Sri D.Chiranjivi, Project Manager in General Administration (Elections) Department on contract basis for a period of 11 months from 20.01.2007 and subsequently the period was extended up to 19.11.2012 vide G.O. 2nd to G.O. 5th read above.

2. As ordered by the Commission, 294 Designated Photography Locations were established earlier and now they have been expanded to the Tahsil Level with a total number of DPL Centers from 294 to 1200 which requires monitoring by these project managers regularly. The Election Commission of India has also decided that a full fledged GIS system with State Level Data and maps be set up in every C.E.Os. Office. The Commission wants that GIS maps to provide policy input on the following issues:

- I. Vulnerability assessment of Polling Stations with respect to Geographical and other socio economic parameters.
- II. Analysis of prior election related incidents and results with respect to geographical parameters.
- III. Location of Polling stations hamlets with respect to all weather roads and optimal location of Polling Stations for providing convenience to Voters.
- IV. Re-organisation of Polling Stations with reduced voters strength wherever geographical impediments are faced.
- V. Preparation of digital maps for all the Polling Stations in the State for attachment with the electoral roll.
